

“

Rome Fiumicino Airport is on the verge of exponential growth. We must necessarily look towards the development of an additional runway and new services. It is with pride, as a citizen of Rome, that I recall how we have won the award for best airport in Europe for several years, and are among the best in the world. The development plan will allow us to maintain these positions and to improve.

”

FEDERICO FRENI

Undersecretary of State - Ministry of the Economy and Finance
Event “Together for the Future of Rome and Lazio”