

“

ADR's development plan for Fiumicino, envisaging an investment of €9 billion (entirely privately funded), represents a key strategic choice for Italy's international competitiveness.

The Leonardo da Vinci airport's expansion project - one of Italy's flagship projects - should receive maximum support from institutions, as well as from the entire national production system.

”

ANDREA FIORLETTA

President of Assocambi